

SORATO

QUIET OBJECT. LASTING PRESENCE

CATALOGUE 2025/2026

TECHNICAL PRESENTATION

SORATO - PHILOSOPHY

THE COLLECTION

The SORATO Collection is the physical expression of our values.

Each piece is conceived as a dialogue between material, function, and emotion : shaped by craftsmanship, cultural sensitivity, and restraint.

We design objects that are not decorative statements, but lasting presences.

Our collections are guided by a belief in:

- timeless forms over seasonal trends,
- honest materials over surface effects,
- precision over excess.

Every object reflects a careful balance between design and production.

Proportions, textures, and construction methods are never accidental - they are the result of informed choices and respect for the making process.

SORATO Collection is not about volume.

It is about meaning, longevity, and quiet confidence.

GEERT VAN ACKER

PEOPLE

People who love this way of living choose calm over noise. They value space, light, and moments that feel natural and unforced. Life happens outdoors, surrounded by greenery, water, and quiet luxury. It's a lifestyle built on balance — where design supports life, and comfort feels effortless

THE PLANTER

Sculpted form born from earth and fire. OXO Moleskin reveals a soft, tactile surface with mineral depth, while OTO is shaped from the famous Terra Forte clay, known for its strength and durability. Designed by Geert van Acker, these unique forms bring quiet power, balance, and timeless presence to outdoor spaces — created to endure, and to be unmistakably their own. As a natural counterpoint, GEUM Baskets introduce purity and softness — handwoven, uncoated, and entirely natural
